CIA Reveals Soviet Campaign to Destroy It and FBI

Washington, D. C.—P—The central intelligence agency is circulating among a group of congressmen a report describing a Soviet propaganda campaign aimed at the CIA, but also striking at the FBI.

The activity, says the CIA report, is chiefly planned and directed by a special "department of disinformation" established in the KGB, the Soviet state security service.

The CIA says the KGB department was set up by former Premier Nikita Khrushchev and is headed by Gen. Ivan Ivanovich Agayants, "a senior, professional intelligence officer with long experience."

The objective of the campaign, the report states, "is to achieve the destruction, break-up and neutralization of CIA" with an ultimate goal "to isolate and destroy what the KGB designates as 'glavni vrag' (main enemy), the United States."

"By striking at CIA," the report said, "the attack also centers on the intelligence community with particular thrust against the FBI and Mr. J. Edgar Hoover." FBI director J. Edgar Hoover, in the cold war, issued the report to members of congress.

The CIA, often under attack charged with keeping an eye both at home and abroad for on its operations.
